SUMMER STUDIES

"Xavier University will again offer a large number of course options during the 1976 Summer Session."

"The schedule (pages 2 and 3) includes courses at the graduate and undergraduate levels, —both day and evening—a very interesting Intersession program (page 4), short-term workshops and institutes," stated Dr. Milton Partridge, Summer Sessions, Xavier University.

Course offerings include a wide variety for the degree student,—both graduate and undergraduate—for the individual in the community interested in continuing education in a non-degree status, and courses for the high school junior or senior of above average ability.

"The out-of-town student, home for the summer, will find many courses acceptable for transfer to his college or university," added Dr. Partridge.

Dean Raymond McCoy, Graduate School, pointed out also that, "The Summer Sessions offer many choices for the professional educator, for the Master of Business Administration candidate, for the Masters of Arts and Science, and for the Correctional Program."

"For teachers whose schools do not close until Friday, June 11, special session courses are especially attractive. In the week of June 14 is the Workshop-Institute: Children's and Adolescents' Books and Related Media. During the week of July 19, three workshops—Group Dynamics, Alcohol Education, and School Community Relations for the Principal—and an Institute—Bicentennial America: Toward Century III—will be offered."

Individuals may register as special students if they do not wish to pursue a degree program. Any person holding a bachelor's degree registers through the Graduate School of the University, while anyone without a college degree registers through the University's College of Continuing Education.

HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS

No Tuition!

The Xavier University Summer Sessions is offering to qualified high school juniors a course at no tuition charge during the 1976 Summer Sessions. High school juniors will be permitted to register for one course from among a group of approved freshmen level courses. The student will receive standard university credit for the course and it will be incorporated into the student's permanent record if matriculation occurs at Xavier University. The credit may additionally be transferable to other colleges.

The high school junior must have the approval of the high school principal or counselor to take the course. A variety of courses is available in the day and evening, both summer sessions.

Interested students are advised to contact the Xavier University Summer Sessions Office (745-3601).

WORKSHOPS

ADULT CHRISTIANITY: An Alternative Approach

The University is presenting a unique workshop in Adult Christianity during the first three weeks of the summer sessions. The workshop is offered through the Department of Theology, the Graduate School, the Summer Sessions, and the Religious Education Office, Archdiocese of Cincinnati. The program includes the following features: a communal experience of the new Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults; an exploration of adult Christian faith levels; the relationship between liturgy and catechetics in light of the new rite; ecclesial implications of the new rite; a clarification of one's personal faith level; and an opportunity to develop a personal program for growth. The workshop will also feature participated experiences of shared prayer and liturgy.

The workshop will be held from June 13 to July 2, 1976. The first session is on Sunday, June 13, 7:00 P.M., in the Terrace Room of the University Center. The three-week program carries six graduate credit hours and calls for an exclusive commitment of time during the first two weeks—9:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M. daily—plus the entire weekend of June 18-20. The third week will be given to an independent project of the participant—related to the participant's needs and interests. The third week may be completed on or off the University campus.

The workshop may be taken on a Pass/Fail or Audit basis. Evaluation will be based upon individual participation and the independent project.

The workshop is under the direction of Leo Klein, S.J., Department of Theology, Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio 45207. For information call (513) 745-3635 or the Summer Sessions Office.
